

How to Unlock Barriers to Scaling-up Climate Finance for more Transformative Finance

AFD - Agence Française de Développement

6 November, 15:00 - 16:30

While the volume of Climate Finance needs to be ramped up dramatically and for the long haul, barriers to scale up are manifold: inadequate regulatory frameworks, dearth of finance form capital markets or a lack of bankable and standardized green projects. This side-event will identify the most important constraints that hamper the emergence climate finance at large scale and discuss plausible financial structuring that can inspire the launch of new pilot initiatives.
